Dear Friends,

Every time we unveil a new Kingston Symphony concert season our excitement rises to near-fever pitch. That's because we are about to show you what we have been labouring over for months. It is always an exciting moment, and gives us a chance to step back and reflect on what we are capable of offering to you, our incredible audience. I think you will agree that once again we have come through in spades!

Looking at our Masterworks Series, we have a host of beloved and enduring pieces, such as Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto, Beethoven's Seventh, The Nutcracker Suite, La Bohème, Mozart's astounding Symphony No. 40...the list goes on. In addition, we are showcasing a bunch of brilliant works to captivate you. Two examples: Martinu's incredible oratorio, The Epic of Gilgamesh, and Maxime Goulet's Ice Storm Symphony commemorating the week in January 1998 when Eastern Canada was paralysed by an ice storm. A host of encores at each concert is sure to send you off smiling!

As always, our Pops Series is second to none. Kate Fogg and MacKenzie Sechi take us through an astounding tour of Broadway and Musical Theatre's best, we celebrate the Fantasy genre with selections from Lord of the Rings, Dune, Harry Potter and more, and we present the return of Symphonic Speedruns, the most dynamic video game concert ever, featuring a run of beloved indie game Silksong. It goes without saying that our family and Christmas concerts are not to be missed.

Please join us for a season of surprise, wonder, and celebration. We can't wait – and you shouldn't either!

Yours in music,

Evan Mitchell

Surprise!

We tend to live in an on-demand world, but having everything at one's fingertips means missing out on the joy of surprise. Enter superstar pianist Angela Cheng, who joins us for a truly novel season opener. This is a concert filled with extraordinary music, but there's a catch: We aren't going to tell you what that music is! Place your trust in us and experience a delightful concert concept like no other.

Haydn & Beethoven

Whether a restless temperament, a protest against authority, or the impulse to blaze a new compositional path, composers have created some of the world's finest works from an innate spirit of rebellion. From Haydn's Farewell Symphony, the ultimate protest piece, to Beethoven's brilliant Symphony No. 7, standing in the face of convention, this concert calls upon the rebel in us all.

Masterworks Two

Bartok: Romanian Folk Dances

Beethoven:
Symphony No. 7

Rebellious

Puccini & Martinů

Throughout the centuries we have been captivated by stories of legendary partnerships, people who were simply meant for each other. Experience two masterpieces depicting generational love and friendship. Puccini's immortal La Bohème tells the story of the love between Rodolfo and Mimi, and Martinů's astonishing Epic of Gilgamesh chronicles the mythological adventures of Gilgamesh and Enkidu, two true best friends challenging the gods.

Masterworks Three

Puccini: End of Act 1 of La Bohème

Martinů: The Epic
of Gilgamesh

Heroic

Mendelssohn & Mozart

Why have one when you can have two? Take in this double helping of incredible works, proving two is almost always better than one. Virtuoso violinist Robert Uchida returns to the Kingston Symphony stage along with award-winning pianist Philip Chiu to perform Mendelssohn's thrilling Double Concerto. Then come back for a second helping of Mozart's epic Symphony No. 40, his second G minor Symphony, a piece as dramatic and bold as it gets.

Masterworks Four

Jan.
10

Sunday, 2:30 p.m.
The Isabel

Robert Uchida,
Violin

Philip Chiu,
Piano

Evan Mitchell,
Conductor

Mendelssohn:
Concerto for Violin and Piano

Mozart:
Symphony No. 40

Majestic

Goulet & Tchaikovsky

Gather around for a familiar tale. Throughout time people have united to hear a good yarn. Some of history's greatest composers have also achieved master storyteller status. Bizet's operatic blockbuster has enraptured since its premiere. Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto fascinates with its bewitching narrative. And Maxime Goulet's enchanting Ice Storm Symphony tells the tale of a generational weather event that brought Eastern Canada to a standstill in 1998.

Masterworks Five

Feb.
7

Sunday, 2:30 p.m.
The Isabel

Yosuke Kawasaki,
Violin

Evan Mitchell,
Conductor

Bizet: Excerpts from Carmen Suite

Tchaikovsky:
Violin Concerto

Goulet: Ice Storm Symphony

Powerful

Rossini & Mendelssohn

What could be more delightful than a curated multiple-course musical meal? Your sense of taste will be tantalized by a smorgasbord of selections inspired by food, from the legendary Nutcracker Suite through Strauss' brilliant Schlagobers Suite, with strong notes of coffee and whipped cream. Summon your appetite from selections by Rossini, Vaughan Williams and Zappa, and salivate over Mendelssohn's Midsummer Night's Dream. For if music be the food of love, play on!

Masterworks Six

Mar.
7

Sunday, 2:30 p.m.
The Isabel

Evan Mitchell,
Conductor

Rossini: Overture
to William Tell

Mendelssohn:
Incidental music
from Midsummer
Night's Dream

Vaughan Williams:
March of the Kitchen Utensils
from The Wasps

Strauss:
Coffee from Schlagobers Suite

Tchaikovsky:
Nutcracker Suite

Zappa: Peaches in Regalia

Delicious

Festival of Dance

We close the season with an unusual take on our yearly festival. Instead of singling out one composer, we are focusing on the art of the music of dance. From the ballet to the tango and beyond, this is a true celebration of some of the greatest music ever written, inspired by the grace, beauty, strength, and resolve of human beings in motion. JUNO Award winner Angela Schwarzkopf joins us for what will be an unforgettable performance of Arturo Marquez's harp concerto, inspired by the official dance of Cuba, the Danzón.

Masterworks Seven

May 2

Sunday, 2:30 p.m.
The Isabel

Angela Schwarzkopf,
Harp
Evan Mitchell,
Conductor

Massenet:
Ballet music from
Le Cid

Tchaikovsky:
White Swan Pas
de Deux from Swan Lake

Marquez:
Mascaras

Prokofiev: Waltz and Midnight from Cinderella

Delibes:
Coppelia Suite
